

WALLACE B. SMITH Leadership, Arts and Sports Grant Application

Wallace B. Smith was president of Graceland University's sponsoring church, Community of Christ, from 1978 to 1996. The scholarships named in his honor go to young men and women who show the promise to make a significant contribution to the Graceland campus by modeling the university's three core values: learning, wholeness, and community.

In addition to one $3000 scholarship, Graceland will give additional scholarships ranging from $1000 - $2500, renewable for up to four years, to those who have distinguished themselves within any of the university's three core values.

Winners will be announced at Friday's Morning Celebration.

SCHOLARSHIP RECIPIENT REQUIREMENTS

To provide increased opportunities for students to create and expand their community, service, and leadership on campus; scholarship recipients will be required to enroll and successfully complete RELG 1700/3700 Missional Ministry and Leadership Practicum each semester. The practicum is pass/fail and is available for either 0 or 1 credit each semester. For more information about the practicum, please contact Mike Hoffman, Campus Minister, at mhoffman@graceland.edu or 641.784.5466.

Mail, email or fax all application materials to:

Admissions Office, Graceland University, 1 University Place, Lamoni, IA 50140, admissions@graceland.edu, 641.784.5480

Questions? Please contact the Admissions Office at: 866.472.2352 (866.GRACELAND) or 641.784.5196.

REMINDER: All materials must be in by 1 p.m. on the Tuesday of Spectacular.

Core Value: LEARNING

Please list academic awards honors and awards, AP courses, major research papers or presentations or other academic achievements from your high school years.

In 3-4 sentences, select one of the items listed of which you are proud. What did you accomplish in doing it and what did you learn? Aside from the knowledge or skills you learned, share with us why the experience was significant. How did the experience make you grow?

Core Value: WHOLENESS

Graceland encourages students to grow not just through their academic studies but through participation in campus activities and individual interests. Wholeness involves developing social skills, taking care of one's health and mental outlook, exploring one's spiritual values, and demonstrating a curiosity in the world around you. List the clubs, organizations, or volunteer activities, you have participated in and give you a feeling of satisfaction.

Select one item from the list above. In 3-4 sentences, explain why you participate in it and how it helps you become a well-rounded individual.

Core Value: COMMUNITY

Graceland's motto is "the Power of Together." At Graceland, "you belong just because you are here," and lifelong friendships develop. The university encourages students to find ways to connect with each other, the campus, and beyond to make the work a better place. List projects or organizations you have participated in that have made your school, church, neighborhood, community or world a better place.

Select one of those activities. In 3-4 sentences, what was your role, what did you accomplish, and how did it promote a stronger sense of community?

Choosing a college or university

Each college or university has its own personality and its particular strengths. List 3-4 distinguishing characteristics you are looking for in the college you will attend. What would encourage you to apply? What would discourage you from applying to a particular college?

Your turn

Choose something unique about yourself. What would you want the selection committee to know about you that might not have been covered in the previous questions?
